Subject: Decision - Final Admission

Hello,

Congratulations Jonathan Sanchez! After reviewing your file, we are pleased to announce your admission to the following study program:

Master of Arts in Classical Studies (209510)
Faculty of Arts and Science

This admission is a testament to your academic excellence and recognizes your efforts along your educational path. We are confident that you have all the qualities needed to flourish at our university and that you will contribute to our community.

As a graduate student at the Université de Montréal, you will have access to all the resources of an internationally renowned educational institution. You will receive a high level of education from professors who are authorities in their field and you will evolve in a stimulating environment, at the leading-edge of knowledge and in tune with the challenges of our society. You can also take advantage of many sources of funding and our extensive network of contacts in all fields.

Studying at UdeM also means having all the support and guidance you need to achieve your full potential. You are also about to join a diverse, dynamic and committed community based on intellectual curiosity and open-mindedness that will support you well beyond your studies.

The doors of our campus are now open to you. Over the next few weeks, you will receive valuable information to help you prepare for the new school year as well as invitations to various welcome and initiation activities. We are waiting for you!

Congratulations once again! I welcome you to the Université de Montréal community and I wish you all the best in your studies.

On behalf of the Dean - Faculty of Arts and Sciences,
