If you were born in a country other than Canada and have acquired Canadian citizenship, you must provide copies of the front and back of your certificate of Canadian citizenship.

If you have acquired permanent resident status, you must provide copies of the front and back of your permanent resident card or of the IMM1000 or IMM5292 form, signed and dated.

Proof of your status as a Quebec resident: your Québec Selection Certificate (CSQ) or an official letter from the Quebec Ministère de l’Immigration, de la Diversité et de l’Inclusion attesting that you have been issued a CSQ. If you have not been issued one, please consult the Attestation of Québec Resident Status form to determine which documents you must submit.

The steps to obtain a Québec Acceptance Certificate (CAQ) and a study permit are outlined at www.bei.umontreal.ca/bei/form_caq.htm. If you are a French citizen, you must provide an official birth certificate, a copy of your passport or a French identity card (front and back) to qualify for an exemption from increased tuition under the agreement between France and Quebec, if applicable.

Note that other documents may be required, depending on your program. You will find your program’s requirements at www.admission.umontreal.ca.
